

CURRICULUM VITAE

DANIEL MATTHEW CUSTANCE LAWSON

Department of Economics, Drew University
36 Madison Avenue
Madison, NJ 07940
E-mail: dlawson@drew.edu

RESEARCH AREAS

Labor Economics, Applied Econometrics, Microeconomics, History of Economic Thought

EDUCATION

PHILOSOPHIAE DOCTOR (ECONOMICS)

University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Indiana
August 2005

MASTER OF ARTS (ECONOMICS)

University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Indiana
January 2003

BACHELOR OF ARTS (MATHEMATICS AND POLITICAL SCIENCE)

Kalamazoo College, Kalamazoo, Michigan
June 1999

DIPLÔME D'ÉTUDES FRANÇAIS (DEUXIÈME DEGRÉ)

Université des Sciences Humaines de Strasbourg, Strasbourg, France
February 1998

CURRENT RESEARCH

PUBLICATIONS AND PAPERS UNDER REVIEW

"The Distribution of Retirement Leisure," with Dr. Kevin D. Neuman, University of Wisconsin,
Papers and Proceedings of the Labor and Employment Relations Association (forthcoming)

"Everyone Loses: How Wage Discrimination Against Female Non-Managerial Workers Affects the Wages of Managers and Male Coworkers," under review for the Industrial and Labor Relations Review

"Je ne suis pas Marxist: Gary Becker's Quest for the Theory of Everything and its Unlikely Destination," under review for The Journal of Economic Methodology.

WORKING PAPERS

Does Retiring Earlier Mean More Leisure? (with Dr. Kevin D. Neuman, University of Wisconsin) (October 2006)

After School Special: The wage effect of adjusting work schedules for after school childcare
(October 2006)

A generalized implementation of bivariate tobit models in Stata (December 2005)

The distribution of retirement leisure (December 2005)

An empirical test of the relationship between the male-female wage gap and the wages of male workers (May 2005)

An empirical test of the relationship between the male-female wage gap and the wages of managers (May 2005)

Mathematical models of manager discrimination in a principal/agent conflict scenario (April 2005)
An empirical test of the relationship between the black-white wage gap and the wages of white workers (March 2005)
An empirical test of the relationship between the black-white wage gap and the wages of managers (March 2005)
Maximum likelihood estimation of the time elapsed between the ordered, censored observations of two events (December 2003)
The distribution of early retirement leisure (December 2003)
The relationship between wage discrimination and the wages of groups not discriminated against (April 2003)
Inequality and growth: The relationship between national education levels and political stability (December 2002)
De Gustibus non est refutandum (June 2002)
Different People...Common Ground: A study of strategies used to improve race relations in metropolitan Detroit (January 1999)

PRESENTATIONS

Labor and Industrial Relations Association Annual Meetings, Boston, "The distribution of time spend in retirement" (January 2006)
Economics Workshop, University of Notre Dame, "Alternatives to age as a proxy for experience" (September 2003)
Institutions Workshop, University of Notre Dame, "The relationship between wage discrimination and the wages of groups not discriminated against" (April 2003)

DISSERTATION

Topic: Is wage discrimination against blacks and females related to higher or lower wages for whites and males?
Dissertation director: Dr. Teresa Ghilarducci
Defended successfully July 2005

WORK EXPERIENCE

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF ECONOMICS
Drew University, Madison, New Jersey
September 2005 - Present

GRADUATE ASSISTANT, HIGGINS LABOR RESEARCH CENTER
University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Indiana
August 2004 - August 2005

INSTRUCTOR, PRINCIPLES OF MICROECONOMICS
Saint Mary's College, Notre Dame, Indiana
January - May 2004

GRADUATE ASSISTANT, PRINCIPLES OF MICROECONOMICS
University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Indiana
January 2003 - May 2004

GRADUATE ASSISTANT, FIRST YEAR WRITING SEMINAR

University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Indiana

August - December 2002

SUMMER REMEDIATION INSTRUCTOR

South Bend Community School Corporation, South Bend, Indiana

August 2001

THEOLOGY TEACHER AND DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

University of Detroit Jesuit High School and Academy, Detroit, Michigan

August 2000 - June 2001

PROGRAM COORDINATOR

The National Conference for Community and Justice, Detroit, Michigan

June 1999 - August 2000

TEACHING ASSISTANT

Kalamazoo College, Department of Mathematics, Kalamazoo, Michigan

September 1996 - March 1999

RESEARCH ASSISTANT

United Way Community Services, Detroit, Michigan

June - September 1996 and June - September 1997

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

ARTICLE REFEREE

Labor Studies Journal

CLUB ADVISOR

Omicron Delta Epsilon Economics Honor Society, Nu chapter of New Jersey, Drew University

DIVERSITY TRAINING FACILITATOR

First Year Student Orientation, 2006

SKILLS

PROGRAMMING

Extensive experience using Stata (including maximum likelihood programming), Gauss, SAS, Perl, and Excel for data manipulation and analysis

Familiarity with SPSS and E-views for data analysis

DATA SETS

Extensive experience with Current Population Survey, Census Public Use Microdata Sample, and American Time Use Survey

Some familiarity with Panel Study of Income Dynamics, American Community Survey, and Health and Retirement Survey

SUPPLEMENTAL GRADUATE COURSES

Graduate courses in grant writing and social science teaching techniques

HONORS AND AWARDS

Presidential Fellowship, University of Notre Dame (August 2001 – August 2005)

B.A. Diploma Summa Cum Laude, Kalamazoo College, June 1999

Departmental Honors in Mathematics, June 1999

Henry Brown Award for outstanding community involvement, Kalamazoo College, June 1999

Member, Phi Beta Kappa (inducted to the Delta Chapter of Michigan in June 1998)

Member, Alpha Lambda Delta (Freshman honor society; inducted in November, 1996)

Kalamazoo College Cooper Prize in Physics, September 1996

Phi Beta Kappa Book Award, September 1996

Freshman Math Award, Kalamazoo College, September 1996

Connable Scholarship for Excellence in Mathematics or the Natural Sciences, September 1996 – June 1999

National Merit Scholarship, September 1995 – June 1996

Kalamazoo College Honors Scholarship, September 1995 – June 1999

Kalamazoo College Competitive Scholarship: English, September 1995 – June 1999