

Guidelines for Reaction papers:

Identify the main thesis of the author(s).

Discuss in very general terms the evidence provided to support the thesis.

Comment on whether there were any aspects of the article that:

- a. surprised you or were unknown to you.
- b. were confusing or hard to understand.
- c. you found disturbing or problematic.

Did the article raise questions worth exploring further?